IV. Complaint Procedures

A. Employees and beneficiaries of subrecipients who wish to complain of discrimination by a subrecipient may file a complaint directly with the subrecipient, with the GOYFF, or with the Office for Civil Rights (OCR), Office of Justice Programs, DOJ. If an employee or beneficiary of a subrecipient raises an allegation of discrimination with a GOYFF employee, the GOYFF employee shall instruct the complainant to submit a written statement of the allegations to the GOYFF Program Director. The GOYFF Program Director will then forward the written complaint to the GOYFF Director and Deputy Director, who are responsible for coordinating these complaint procedures.

B. A subrecipient may also forward to the GOYFF a discrimination complaint that an employee or beneficiary filed directly with the subrecipient. Any GOYFF employee receiving a discrimination complaint from a subrecipient shall submit the complaint to the GOYFF Program Director, who shall forward the complaint to the GOYFF Director and Deputy Director.

C. The GOYFF Director or Deputy Director will refer complaints alleging discrimination by a subrecipient to the OCR and/or the Civil Rights Division, Arizona Attorney General’s Office, as appropriate, for investigation and resolution. The Director or Deputy Director will notify the complainant in writing of this referral.

V. Policy Dissemination

The GOYFF will post these complaint procedures on the GOYFF website to notify GOYFF subrecipients and their employees and beneficiaries of prohibited discrimination and the procedures for filing a complaint of discrimination against a subrecipient. The policy will be included in new employee materials and reiterated during staff trainings throughout the year. In addition, the policy will be posted to the GOYFF common folder. Information on the policy will be provided during pre-application conferences and during the subrecipient orientations and as part of their welcome letter.

Non-discrimination clauses will continue to be incorporated into all subrecipients contracts and agreements.
